

British D-One Association

December 2012 Newsletter

Same start as the last newsletter.....

Well I've missed at least one (newsletter) and the weather has caused chaos
(flooding again – poor Tewkesbury boys)

I'm still doing up the house very slowly, I've been on holiday (Gold Cup – more of that later) and I did work whilst on holiday (It was a nice order!)

D-One & the RYA

Handicap -

GJW Sailjuice Winter Series sailing off 971

I spoke to Andy Wibroe of the RYA before Christmas, he indicated that the current PYs number after dropping below 953 is now running at high 950s/low 960s

RYA membership – we have paid our 2013 affiliation.

Class Rules

The Class rules are now up to V3.4 after the GBR Association has helped the Italians get affiliation to there National body (FIV).

Czech

There should be again 2 D-One regattas on Nove Mlyny Lake [only 70 km from Vienna airport and in beautiful region of South Moravia, popular as well known wine region - visits to wine cellars are a matter of course]. The ideal one for this reasons would be the first regatta, enclosed you can find this year invitation.

Another 2 events will be held again on Lipno lake, biggest sailing area in Czech.

Dates should be around:

3 -5 May Palavska regata Nove Mlyny Lake

25 – 26 May Cena Dyje Nove Mlyny Lake

June Compotech Cup Lipno Lake

End of August Czech Nationals Lipno Lake

Further info etc will be online on <http://www.d-onesailing.org/>

Facebook page <http://www.facebook.com/pages/British-D-One-Association/243152035773028>

Please join it; the idea was to use it to promote GBR events and regattas at your clubs or local area.

Demos

If you know anyone looking to get into the class please pass their details to Rodney sales@suntouched.co.uk for structured demo days with D-One sailor Russ Hopkins.

Should you have any questions drop me an email.
